

Service Dog Do's and Don'ts

Who can use a service dog?

- A. A person with Autism
- B. Someone in a wheelchair
- C. Anyone with a disability

A task that a service dog may do on a daily basis is:

- A. Retrieve dropped items
- B. Drive people to the grocery store
- C. Send an email to someone

One of the few places a service dog may not be allowed is:

- A. A library
- B. An intensive care unit (I.C.U.) at a hospital
- C. A movie theater

The reason you should always ask if you can pet a service dog is:

- A. You don't want to distract the dog from doing his work
- B. If a person uses the dog for balance, he/she could fall
- C. All of the above

A service dog only gets to play and have fun:

- A. Once a year on their birthday
- B. When it's Friday
- C. Every day when they are not working

TUESDAY TUCKS ME IN

The Loyal Bond between a Soldier and his Service Dog